The Department intends to initiate this investigation as required by section 731 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended. The Department intends to determine whether an industry in the United States is materially injured or threatened with material injury or the establishment of a pattern or practice of widespread evasion of the antidumping and countervailing duty laws of the United States by reason of sales of insulated wall panels from the PRC that are being or are likely to be sold in the United States at less than fair value, or whether the investigation is otherwise appropriate. The U.S. International Trade Commission (ITC), the Department of Commerce, the Department of Energy, and the U.S. International Trade Commission Office of the Hearings Director have determined that insulated wall panels imported from the PRC are being sold in the United States at less than fair value and that an industry in the United States is materially injured or threatened with material injury or the establishment of a pattern or practice of widespread evasion of the antidumping and countervailing duty laws of the United States by reason of such sales. On June 25, 2008, the Department notified
